Toussaint Law Firm, PC Announces a New Team Member

SENECA, SC- The Toussaint Law Firm, PC, of Seneca, South Carolina recently welcomed Leslie Cromer as a Paralegal/Legal Secretary. As the newest member of the Toussaint team, Cromer will work with clients as she assists attorney Scott Toussaint with family law.

“We’ve been searching for a qualified paralegal because of the growing demand for help in family law and other legal services,” said K.Scott Toussaint, attorney and owner of The Toussaint Law Firm, PC. “Leslie’s knowledge of family law, attention to detail and friendly personality will be helpful in assisting clients through a tough process.”

Cromer obtained her paralegal certificate over a year ago from the University of South Carolina-Aiken. Cromer graduated from Anderson University in 1997. Previous to her position at Toussaint Law Firm, she worked for four years at the Madren Conference Center at Clemson University as an assistant to the director.
